

Kennedy Krieger Institute

Fostering Meaningful Inclusion and Belonging at Work and in Life Spaces: Why it Matters and How to Prioritize it.

Dr. Mirian Ofonedu, Ph.D., LCSW-C, is the Director of Training at the Maryland Center for Developmental Disabilities at Kennedy Krieger Institute. She is an Associate Professor at the University of Maryland Baltimore (UMB) Graduate School and the Johns Hopkins University Bloomberg School of Public Health, Department of Mental Health. She is also a faculty affiliate of the Johns Hopkins Wendy Klag Center for Autism and Developmental Disabilities and Adjunct Professor at the UMB School of Social Work. Dr. Ofonedu is a psychologist, licensed clinical social worker and a fellow of the American Psychological Association (APA). Her work spans over two decades. Click to read presenter's bio.

Date: Thursday, April 18, 2024

Time: 9 a.m. - 12:15 p.m. EST

Where: In-person at the Bay Area Center for Independent Living, 31516 Winter Place Parkway, Salisbury, MD 21804.

Cost: Free but registration is required

Objectives: Participants will be able to:

1. Describe ways to prioritize the cultivation of meaningful inclusion and belonging for people with disabilities and others.
2. List 2-4 examples of ways to address barriers and factors that hinder meaningful inclusion.
3. Discuss strategies for effective implementation of meaningful inclusion at individual, community, and organizational levels.

This training is sponsored by the Bay Area Center for Independent Living in collaboration with the Maryland Center for Developmental Disabilities at Kennedy Krieger Institute.

To address the inequalities faced by people with disabilities and their families, the concept of social inclusion must go beyond narrow understandings and promotion of increased presence of marginalized groups but rather on the need for them to occupy and play valued social roles within society and community life. This session will provide opportunity for participants to learn what meaningful inclusion and belonging means, why it matters, factors that hinder or facilitate it, and effective strategies for fostering meaningful inclusion at individual community and organizational levels. Participants will have the opportunity to work in small groups to apply the strategies and develop their own action plan for increasing meaningful inclusion and belonging in various spaces.

Instructional Level: Intermediate

Who Should Attend? Psychologists, Social workers, Counselors, Educators, Parents and caregivers, Nurses, Clinical and medical staff, Direct support professionals and other community service providers, Speech-language pathologists, Physical and occupational therapists, Community members, Students/trainees.

To Register, Click or Call 443-923-4114

3.0 Continuing Education Hours

Kennedy Krieger Institute, Maryland Center for Developmental Disabilities is authorized by the Board of Social Work Examiners in Maryland to sponsor social work continuing education programs, and maintains full responsibility for this program. Kennedy Krieger Institute is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. Kennedy Krieger Institute maintains responsibility for this program and its content. 3.0 Continuing Education Credits (Category 1) will be granted to social workers and licensed psychologists. A Certificate of Attendance will be made available for all other disciplines. No conflicts have been identified (this includes commercial support and research grants/funding).

Bay Area Center
for Independent Living

For more information on our Annual Learning Series or to request accommodation or assistance for individuals with disabilities, please contact us by phone at 443-923-4114, email Training.MCDD@KennedyKrieger.org, or visit KennedyKrieger.org/MCDDTraining. Requests should be made as soon as possible but at least seven days prior to the scheduled meeting.

Maryland Center for Developmental Disabilities
at Kennedy Krieger Institute

Building Partnerships. Changing Lives.